

When is Senior Connections the right Choice?

- Are you living alone and enjoying it less?
- Are you trying to balance work while caring for your spouse or parent(s)?
- Have you noticed a friend or family member who has become less interested in activities they used to enjoy?
- Do you worry that your spouse has no one to talk to during the day?
- Are you concerned that a loved one is forgetful?

If you can answer yes to any of these questions we may be able to provide assistance.

Something to look forward to

“From the day she joined the program, she became a different person. She was woman of independence again, taking a taxi to and from the center by herself at the age of 87. “I have something to look forward to now” became the theme of her conversations.

‘There are so many things to do and everyone there is so pleasant.’ It was almost as though a fairy godmother had visited my grandmother and provided her with a warm and friendly place where she felt at home.”

Services are available:
